SOMETIMES DOING GOD'S WORK IS HARD

God's people, like Daniel, sometimes had hard work to do and choices to make. Sometimes doing what God wants us to do is really hard. Write a sentence to finish the stories below. Some might require you to make a difficult choice.

At school, Sara offers you a candy bar. After you take it, you find out she took it from the cafeteria without paying for it. Then you...

At your soccer game you touch the ball with your hands, which is against the rules. No one saw you and no whistles were blown. You should...

While taking a test, you notice a chart of answers the teacher forgot to take down. It would be easy for you to look at it during the test, and it's not your fault the teacher left it up. You decide to...

DANIEL OR EZEKIEL

Draw a line to Daniel if the statement describes him. Draw a line to Ezekiel if the statement describes him. Some statements apply to both.

Prayed to God while facing Jerusalem

Served King Darius

Spoke directly to God's people

DANIEL

EZEKIEL

(Daniel 6)

God told him to be a watchman

(Ezekiel 2)

Delivered from certain death by God

Lived in a foreign land

Was a prophet

Was a friend of King Darius

Ezekiel was a watchman, warning the people of God's judgment. Daniel refused to stop praying to God even when threatened by death. Both men tried to help people by their words and their examples. Name three ways you can be an example to the younger members of your family or your church family.
