himself in his tent. Noah’s son Ham did not treat his father with respect. So, sin began again.

Sin ... Again

Noah’s family had many children, just as God wanted them to. After several years, many people lived on the earth again. All people spoke the same language and could live and work together. But instead of humbly serving God, people wanted to stay together and be great and strong. They came up with a plan to build a tower that would reach into heaven.

The tower project was people’s plan to make themselves as important as God. But God came down and stopped their building. He knew the results of the project would be terrible, so God confused people’s language. This means that different people spoke different languages, and this made it impossible to work and live together. The tower project stopped, and people scattered to live in different places. God called the place “Babel.”

God’s Call and Promise to Abram

Have you ever moved from the place you were living to another place? You didn’t know many people. You didn’t know how to get around or where the stores were located. To leave our home and move to a strange place can be sad and scary.

Abram’s family left their home in Ur of the Chaldees and moved to Haran. When Terah, Abram’s father, died, God asked Abram to leave Haran and go to a place God would show him. God made three great promises to Abram – to give him a land, to give him many children, and to make his family a great nation. All this would make Abram’s name great and through him God would bless all people in the world.

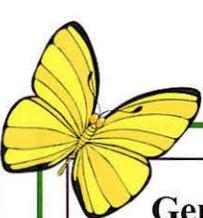

Abram believed God and trusted Him. Abram took his wife Sarai, his nephew

Genesis 12:10-20

hide her face      lie      stay at home

What happened when she did what Abraham told her?

they stayed out of trouble

Lot, and all his belongings and set out for the land called Canaan. The Lord appeared to Abram and told him the land he saw around him would some day be his land.

At Shechem in the land of Canaan, Abram built an altar so he could honor God. Abram was a man with great faith to do what God said. Abram's faith was so deep and strong that he was called a friend of God (James 2:23-24)!

Abram Makes a Mistake

There was a famine in the land of Canaan, and Abram took his family to Egypt. Abram's wife Sarai was a beautiful woman, and Abram was afraid the Egyptians would kill him so they could have her. Abram asked Sarai to lie and say she was his sister.

Pharaoh, the Egyptian king, took Sarai and prepared her to be his wife. God was not pleased. God struck Pharaoh's house with plagues. After a while, the Egyptians discovered that Sarai was Abram's wife. Pharaoh was angry and told Abram to take his wife and leave.

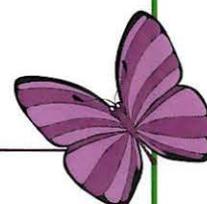

Abram was a man of faith, but he was not a perfect man. He obeyed and worshiped God, but Abram also made mistakes and needed God's help and forgiveness.

Hebrews 11:8-16

Abraham left his home and family, because he _____.

was perfect      had faith
was angry

Describe how big Abraham's family became.
