Job Trusts God

Job's friends stayed for many days. They were telling him he was suffering because he had sinned. Job didn't believe that, but he didn't understand why God was letting all of this trouble happen to him. Finally God spoke to Job from a whirlwind.

God told Job that God is in control of everything that happens on earth. God knew that Job was His faithful servant. No matter what Satan did to him, Job would love God and be faithful to God. And, Job's friends were wrong about Job's troubles being his own fault. So all of the trouble Satan brought on Job didn't work! Satan could not make Job sin. And Satan can't make us sin either!

When God finally spoke to Job, what did God tell him?

Who is in control of everything on earth?

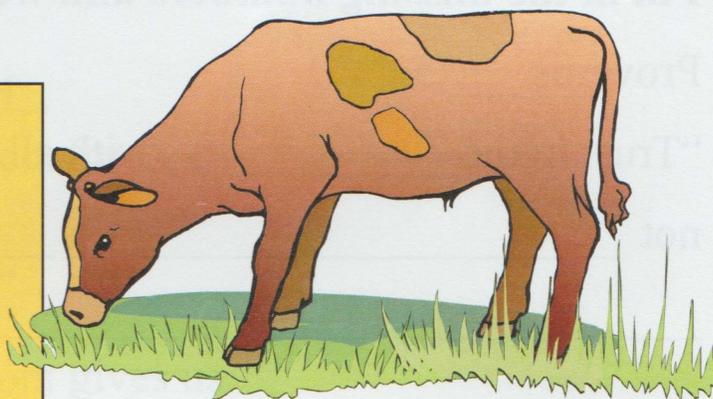

Were Job's friends right when they said that his troubles were his own fault?

Satan was finished testing Job. God talked to Job and blessed him with more children, land, and animals than he had before he was tested. Job also had grandchildren. Now the people all around the country had a lot more good things to say about Job. Satan tested Job, but Job did not sin!

After Satan tested Job, what did God give Job?

When people sin, God does not punish them with illness or pain or by taking away their money or homes. God loves us and is patient with us. He gives us time to admit that we have sinned and tell Him we are sorry.

God sent Jesus to us so we could be forgiven for our sins. So if we tell God we are sorry and ask Him to forgive us, He will. Our God is a great and loving God!
